

The U.S. Attorney's Office, Eastern District of Pennsylvania, has full time and part time openings for Auditors in their Healthcare Fraud Unit. The position will be for a total of two years.

Duties include conducting audit and financial investigations, typically involving one or more violators who are highly successful, professional, or recognized community business leaders; or financial entities having substantial business operations. Conducts analysis of all financial accounting activities on the books, records, computer, and electronic data. Obtains detailed financial information from other sources to include interviews of business associates, firm employees, and competitors. Reconstructs partial or inadequate records to the extent necessary for the purpose of investigation. Obtains evidence through the interrogation of a large number of employees, business people, and other persons throughout the area who have knowledge of the operations. Prepares concise and accurate audit reports, including reports involving assembling, correlating, and analyzing the facts obtained and prepares detailed charts and schedules. Discusses cases with supervisor and recommends further courses of action such as closing of the case, further investigation, and institution of administrative or criminal proceedings.

Candidate must have a background in Accounting or Auditing and preferably be a CPA (Certified Public Accountant) and/or CFE (Certified Fraud Examiner.)

Please indicate in your application if you would like to be considered for either a full time or part time opening.
